POSITION OBJECTIVES

The Administrative Officer (AO) assists the Health General Manager in providing overall administration of Klamath Tribal Health & Family Services' programs, with specific assigned areas of responsibility. This position will serve as second in command of KTHFS operations; assuming administrative responsibility in the absence of the Health General Manager.

The Administrative Officer performs a wide variety of complex management and administrative functions and duties under the direction of the Health General Manager. Primary responsibilities include providing oversight of assigned departments including the Facilities/Security Department, Purchased/Referred Care Department, Community Transportation Department and the Tribal Intern program, and coordination of special projects as assigned by the Health General Manager.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Provide direct supervision to the Facilities/Security Director, Purchased/Referred Care Director, Community Transportation Supervisor, Receptionist, Support Services Clerk, and Tribal Intern program.
2. In partnership with the HGM, the AO will develop recommendations for short and long-term objectives. Implement strategies and meet the objectives of the Tribal Council-adopted Strategic Plan. The AO is responsible for maintaining an inventory of ongoing projects.
3. Responsible for planning, implementing, and evaluating and ensuring assigned departments are meeting the needs of Klamath Tribal Health & Family Services.
4. Work with other tribal or community organizations to ensure that current services are needed and utilized by Klamath Tribal Health & Family Services' target population.
5. Provide oversight and supervision of assigned Tribal Health & Family Service departments and/or programs to ensure they are developing appropriate work plans and carrying out assigned tasks, complying with relevant contract provisions, regulations and laws; and following the policy and long-term planning directives of the Tribal Council. Achieve compliance with applicable regulatory requirements.
6. Responsible for writing, reviewing, and negotiating contracts, grants and MOA/MOU agreements for KTHFS.
7. Assist with development of the purpose of day-to-day administration, specific department operating policies, procedures in accordance with the Personnel Policies & Procedures of The Klamath Tribes. Implement staff development activities and training for programs under AO oversight.
8. Participate in KTHFS annual program operation budgets; responsible for working with direct reports to create their operating budgets, including forecasted revenues and expenditures, allocate and monitor funds for investment(s) and reserves for programs under AO oversight. Be familiar with program budgets and assist with ensuring funding is utilized in an efficient cost effective manner, providing the best services possible.
9. Engage and participate as a leader in the standards of the AAAHC, Inc. as the foundation for health center quality to include: patient rights, risk management, quality assurance, quality of care, facilities management, infection prevention and control, patient and employee safety, and other quality management and improvement functions. Work on various accreditation committees and perform special projects.

10. Ensure staff and the Tribal public are kept informed of management policies and program goals. Assist with and help direct public information and relations. To include assisting with the KTHFS Quarterly newsletter, etc.
 - a) Prepare Klamath Tribal Health & Family Services' Annual Report for presentation to the Klamath Tribes General Council.
 - b) Respond to and resolve questions, inquiries, and complaints from patients with HGM and QA team.
 - c) Responsible for reviewing and approving all KTHFS event and/or informational media, prior to release to the public.
 - d) Speak on behalf of KTHFS when assigned.
11. Maintain a professional demeanor. Practice and promote an approach that ensures open communication and accountability throughout the workplace. Create a spirit of teamwork that is the basis for employees' individual and group efforts. Champion and set an example for ethical, professional behavior in the workplace. Adhere to and promote our customer service standards.
12. Facilitate or attend required meetings of the governing body, Health Advisory Committee, Management Team, Quality Improvement, Risk Management or other ad hoc groups, as assigned by the Health General Manager.
13. Ensure compliance with legal requirements including, but not limited to, patient confidentiality and risk management; compliance with the Privacy Act procedures, HIPAA, Federal, Tribal, and applicable laws and regulations. Coordinate with contracted legal counsel as directed by the HGM.
 - a) Represent Klamath Tribal Health & Family Services and The Klamath Tribes at various meetings/gathering, i.e. The Nine Tribes of Oregon, Indian Health Services, Northwest Portland Indian Health Board, Oregon Health Authority and other agencies, (rotate attendance with the HGM or as assigned). Actively participate in activities that concern Native people, e.g. NPAIHB, National Indian Health Board, and other national related health seminars, as assigned.
14. The incumbent will be called upon to accomplish special tasks within their scope of work, including but not limited to the following:
 - a) Provide a written monthly activity report.
 - b) Prepare the Health General Manager's monthly activity report.
 - c) Attend meetings, committees and assist with the management of clinic operations and address staff concerns as needed.
15. When HGM is not available, provide coordination and overall management of healthcare programs; which includes providing technical and administrative support to program directors to institute improvements that ensure effectiveness and efficiency in the delivery of services to Tribal members. Reviews operating results, compares them to established objectives and takes steps to ensure that the appropriate measures are taken to correct unsatisfactory results.

16. When HGM is not available, keep the Tribal Council, Program Directors and Management Team updated on the status of Tribal projects, programs, and any issues, concerns, and accomplishments of Tribal staff.
17. When HGM is not available, supervise the business affairs of the facility to ensure that funds are collected and expended to the best possible advantage.
18. When assigned by the HGM encourage Klamath Tribal Health & Family Services and Klamath Tribal Administration programs to coordinate through effective communication and cooperation on joint projects and/or program service delivery.
19. The incumbent will be called upon to accomplish other tasks within his/her scope of work.
